ARIZONA THIS

to Oppose the El Paso Players.

Tonight the El Paso golfers and their friends will leave over the Southwestern for Arizona to play a series of individual and team matches with the Douglas and Bisbee golf clubs. Accom-Livie, instructor at the Country club, who will play a series of professional matches, including a triangular purse match with Adams and Marshall, the Douglas and Bisbee experts.

The semi-annual 20 men team match for temporary possession of the silver trophy cup will be played Sunday on the Douglas Country club grounds. Saturday both the El Paso and Douglas golfers will play on the Warren Country club course at Bisbee. They will return, accompanied by the Bisbee players, to Bisbee Saturday afternoon and will play there Saturday afternoon and Sunday. The 20 men match and the professional match will be played Sun-

The sports and pastimes committees of both the Douglas and El Paso country clubs have selected the best golfers among their members and the game promises to be as excfting as the one played here when the winning team could not be picked until the last pair had played their last hole. The team that has been selected by the Douglas club to represent it, and the El Paso Country club team are made up as fol-

J. A. Happer and Dr. C. P. Brown will accompany the team to Douglas and Bisbee. Mr. Happer will take part in the individual contests at Bisbee and Dr. Brown will care for the wounded in the golf battle at Douglas Sunday. El Paso has won the trophy cup for 20 men play four times since it was first purchased. Douglas has won it once but that was February 22 of last year and the local club hopes to wipe out the stigms of this defeat by winning the match Sunday. The matches that were won by El Paso were on the following days: January 26, 1908; February 22, 1908; January 16, 1909;

SOX ARE MAKING LAST TRIP WEST

Veterans Protest Against Traveling and Will Try Camp Life.

It will be the last opportunity the El Paso baseball fans will have of seeing the Chicago White Sox team in action when they play here on their training trip to the coast and return this spring. That is unless they go to Chicago or some other big league town for the Sex are to make their last appearance in the west and southwest this spring. The old veterans on the team have been kicking against the long training trip and the "one night stands" that are played on the return

Comiskey has at last listened to these objections and has consented to try the training camp plan in 1911. The Sox will go to Excelsior Springs, Mo next spring for their work out and if the plan is more successful than the trips to California the team will get ready for the long, hard season at Excelsior instead of going to the coast. The old White Sox trained in Missour! in 1901 and 1902 and the springs were found particularly beneficial for the rheumatic kinks in the old vets'
